OCALA TWENTY YEARS AGO

(Evening Star Dec. 30, 1902)

Baxter Carn and Louis Toffaletti will open the Ocala Seed Store, a first class general seed business, tomorrow morning in the corner store north of M. Fishel.

Rev. Robert F. Rogers of Lake City, state inspector of convict camps, was at the Montezuma today. He was here in the interests of the state in Company with Mr. Rawls, who represents the naval stores men, to inspect the Ocala camp on Fort King avenue.

The death of Mrs. Clara, an aged and most estimable lady, which occurred last Friday at the home of her son, John, near Ocala, removes from this sphere the widow of the late Thomas J. Clara, the gallant old Confederate captain who was for many years justice of the peace for this the first district of the county.

G. A. Petteway of Leroy and H. H. Petteway of Georgia were at the Montezuma yesterday.

The Star enjoyed a pleasant call yesterday from W. H. Green of Boardman, who came down with a load of pork for cold storage. Mr. Green is among the pioneer orange growers around Boardman and with the faith which ever conquers succeeded in bringing back into bearing his grove, disposing of nearly a hundred boxes this season. Speaking of the cold snap he said he did not think that it did any damage. He has some trees that he does not think were damaged, and he was fully satisfied that Mr. Frank Sampson, who has fully 3000 boxes on the trees, suffered no harm.

Ocala Ten Years Ago

(Evening Star Dec. 30, 1912)

The teachers are arriving by every train. Up to noon about twenty teachers had registered with Secretary Turner and received their badges and certificates of membership. The printing on the button is "The Florida State Teachers Association, Dec. 31, 1912, January 2nd, 1913, Ocala, Fla."

Complimenting their guests and cousins, Miss Matilda Hainesworth, Miss Mattie Lee Stroud and Mr. Joseph Walker, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Blalock entertained for the second time last evening, their guests being the boys and girls. Among those present at this most enjoyable party were, besides the honorees, Misses Catherine and Mildred Pylea, Rexie Todd, Mabel Meffert, Annie Moorhead, Martha Kate Rentz, Virginia Sistrunk, Gladys and Theo Wallis, Nan Brooks, Susie Ervin, Ruth Rentz, Elizabeth Davis, Stella and Nina Camp, Wenona Wetherbee, Hannay Ellis, Mary Harriett Livingston, Lois Dame, Musie Bullock, Sara Pearl Martin, Florence Leitner, Eleanor Nixon, Messrs. Wiley and Sam Burford, Leslie and Pat Anderson, Robert Connor, Alfred Green, LaGrange Sistrunk, Welsh Dewey, Olaf Zewadski, Earl Hall, Julius Brown, Joe Blalock, W. M. Martin, Cameron Gamsby, George Looney, Ray Ferguson, Fred Meffert, Robert Clark, Albert Harless, Alfred MacKay, William McIntosh, Bernard Koonce, Carlton Ervin, Leroy Bridges, Eddie Rentz, Pierce Rentz, Ray Nixon and Carroll Blalock.

Mr. T. J. Simmons of Macon, Ga., a brilliant young newspaper man interested in the Macon Evening News, is in the city the guest of his aunt, Mrs. J. T. Lancaster.

Miss Jessie Wilson of Lake Butler, a graduate of the Ocala high school and now teacher at Evinston, is in the city attending the association. She is the guest of Miss Alice Campbell.

MEN WILL MEET AT COURT HOUSE SUNDAY MORNING

The federation of the men's Bible classes of the several churches will meet tomorrow morning at 9:45 at the court house. Complete organization of the federation is to be effected, Dr. J. H. Therrell is to lead the discussion and he will speak of the "Outstanding Men and Incidents of the Year's Bible Study." Every man in Ocala is urged to be present. At the last meeting about 150 men were on hand. There is nothing about the meeting to embarrass any man, but much to help all who come. "Welcome to all," is the slogan of the federation.

How France Honors Actors.

Election to the Comedie Francaise is the highest honor that can be paid an actor. It is an association of French actors devoted to producing French stage classics. Twenty-four members or "associates" divide the profits, half of which are received in cash and the other half invested against the time when they retire. Forty "pensionnaires" work on salary until such time as they are made associates. The company receives a steady of $50,000 a year from the French government.

Why Rosewood is So Called.

Rosewood, so much used in making fine furniture, is not the wood of any rose tree, but is that of several species of tree and so called because it has a perfume of roses and a generally rosy color. One kind comes from Surinam and is very fragrant; another, from Brazil, is the Dalbergia nigra F. All, according to Samuel J. Record of Yale. There is also a rosewood from Honduras which is considered the best in the world for xylophone bars.

DO YOU WONDER?

Asks This Lady, "That I'm a Believer in Cardui?"—Had Been So Weak She Had to Go to Bed.

Osawatimie, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast, formerly of Illinois, residing here, says: "We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while; and then some year or so ago I had a bad sick spell. 'I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything; had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up for three months, not able to do anything."

"My husband is a bill poster and has circulars distributed. One day there came to be a Ladies Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui."

"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months."

"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman."

"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui? I certainly am. And I am sure there is no better tonic made for women than Cardui."

It must at least be said to Newberry's credit that when he resigned his seat in the Senate he wasn't up-pity enough to demand his money back.—Beloit News.

ATTENTION! EVERY PROPERTY OWNER AFFECTED

The supreme court has recently ruled that all real estate not returned for assessment by the owners must be assessed as unknown. The tax assessor's office is now open and will be during the entire tax paying period, therefore I appeal to the citizens and taxpayers to list their property with me for 1923 assessment when they pay 1922 taxes. If this is not practicable, be sure and either see me on my round in January or write me.

Yours for best possible service,
W. L. COLBERT,
Tax Assessor.

Beyond contradiction, Lincoln occupies first place in every consideration of quality in automobile construction. It is easier riding, smoother running, sturdier under hard service, more readily handled, more flexible under control than any other car, regardless of price or claims.

These outstanding elements of superiority are the result of greatest mechanical accuracy ever realized in motor car construction.
